This is still a time of public health emergency, with only half of pews to be used: one per family, or 2 individuals. Stay home if you are ill. Use mask, especially if you are coughing. Sunday obligation to attend is still relaxed. Pray for all.

Thank you for your donations to the church in the past months. The Finance Council and Fr. Ron are working toward a budget for the next 12 months.

Fr. Ron's impressions from the ordination. In the reading of the papal mandate for our new bishop are the impressive words:

Recognizing their shepherd

The 12 apostles were formed by Jesus, and the Savior said, "He who sees me sees the Father."

As he ascended, Jesus conferred authority upon the apostles, and commanded them to go to ends of earth: Matthew 28:18–20 Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

The current Successor of Peter, Pope Francis, advised by the local bishops, discerns in the Holy Spirit Joni Osnes read this at the mass: Ephesians 4:11–13 Christ gave some as apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

In the ordination ritual, Peter received the crosier, a shepherd's staff, and the fullness of Sacramental Holy Orders, to serve as did Jesus the Good Shepherd.

My calling as pastor, a co worker with the bishop in this diocese, is inspired by the next verses: (Ephesians 4:14–16) so that we may no longer be infants, tossed by waves and swept along by every wind of teaching arising from human trickery, from their cunning in the interests of deceitful scheming. Rather, living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into him who is the head, Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, with the proper functioning of each part, brings about the body's growth and builds itself up in love.
